COMMISSIONER'S COURT.-Friday. June 7th. 1872-Before U. S. Commissioner, R. W. BEST.

with the late amendment to the bankrupt act, Col. A. W. Shaffer, Register in bankruptcy, has issued the following circular to members of the Bar of the 4th Congressional District. After copy ing the act, he says:

This Act exempts to the bankrupt such property as the State exemption laws in force in 1871 gives to insolvent persons, to wit : a homestead of the value of $1,000, and personal property of the value of $500, which, together with the $500 exempt under United States laws, makes an aggregate exemption in bankruptcy of $2,000. The present status of the Bankrupt Act is very generally misunderstood, even by the profession, and is asf ollows: The assets which come to the hands of the Assignee must equal 50 per cent. of that part of the debt actually proved against the estate, on which the bankrupt is liable as principal debtor, and which was contracted since January 1st, 1869.

If there are no assets, or if they are insufficient to reach this proportion of the personal debt contracted since January 1, 1869, proven against the estate, then the bankrupt will be discharged only from all debts contracted prior to January 1, 1869, and from all surety debts contracted since that time.

The profession will see that in nineteen-twentieths of cases discharge is as certain as under the 33rd section of the original Act.

The recent Judicial Decisions , requiring all the forms of schedules to ap pear, whether used or signed in blankand the prohibition of erasures and interlineations, or dots to indicate words in the Schedules, have made carefully prepared and Ruled Blanks a necessity.

I have carefully prepared and had printed, ruled and endorsed, in very neat style, all the forms liable to be used in Bankruptcy by United States Commissioners, the officers of the court or the profession.

They are now ready and will be sold at $1.50 per quire, or 5 cents per single sheet when less than a quire is ordered, and 10 cents for such forms as require double sheet. They will be forwarded on receipt of price, by mail, post paid. or by express, as directed.

ARRIVAL OF IMMIGRANTS.-The steamship Moravian arrived at Norfolk Thursday morning from Liverpool bringing a large number of immigrants destined for North Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee. Col. Geo. Little, the Commissioner of Immigration for North Carolina, received them in Norfolk, and will doubtless induce a large number to locate in our State. They are principally English, Irish and Scotch, and represented as men of sufficient means to purchase lands and establish themselves at once.

Col. Little, as the State immigrant agent, is leaving no stone unturned in his course to promote foreign immigrat'on to our State, and is doing more than any other one man to fill up our waste places.

INSURANCE COMMISSIONER.-Under the act of the last General Assembly creating the office of Commissioner of Insurance, the Governor has appointed to fill that position W. H. CLINTON, SAMPSON CO, N, C., June 6th, 1872.

Judges Merrimon and Shipp reached his delightful place yesterday evening, receiving a most hearty welcome from the citizens of the place. A number of gentlemen met them at the hotel, and Mr. Edward Carr, in a short but elegant address, welcomed them to the hospitalities of the town of Clinton and the county of Sampson. SHALL THE COUNTRY BE CURSED WITH ANOTHER FOUR YEARS' DESPOTISM ?

The re-nomination of Grant at Phila delphia was purely a matter of form. It was "a cut-and dried affair." It has been long known that the office-holders' candidate would have everything his own way, and no opposition to him inside the Republican party could be brooked or countenanced. If any objection on the score of his personal unfitness, nepotism and general incompetency was urged or suggested by any Republican, forthwith he was denounced as a "sore-head" or disorganizer, and was at once read out of the party.

Such rigid tests of party allegiance find illustrations only in the harsh rule of military dictatorship and discipline. They demanded that Grant be accepted unhesitatingly and unconditionallyand he who did not bow obsequiously at the foot-stook of ULYSSES THE FIRST, was overwhelmed with floods of abuse and villification, and the vocabulary of epithets was exhausted to find terms sufficiently denunciatory to characterize the conduct of the honest and patriotic Republicans, who would not compromise with corruption nor sell their principles for the patronage of office or the smiles of power.

While we were all as much assured that Grant would be re-nominated as we could well be assured of any fature political event, yet the fact that he has been again put forth as the candidate of the party which has ruled the country with so much rigor, inefficiency and corruption for the past four years, should open our eyes as to what we may expect if his Administration should be endorsed by the people of the United States, at the ballot-box, on the first Thursday in November.

The platform adopted by the Philadelphia Convention, as we can gather from its language in the dispatches, contains some stale platitudes, with unmeaning generalities, and sugar-coated that it may be swallowed without producing wry-faces. It endorses the Kuklux-Administration of Congress, and concludes by expressing "confidence in the modest patriotism, carnest purposes, sound judgment and practical wisdom of U. S. Grant." We regard this en dorsement as a fine piece of burlesque'

His "modest patriotism" consists in the fact that he demands the Presidential office a second time, and was determined to have the nomination at all hazards.

His "earnest purposes" are shown in the fact that he was terribly in earnest about the matter, and his friends dared not refuse to nominate him. His "sound judgment" has reference probably to his opinion of fine horses, which is said to be almost infallible. Grant has a handsome collection of the most thorough-blooded steeds to be found in this country. It is reported that his stables, for the number and quality of their horses, would do credit to any European prince.

atives in providing them with snug berths in the various departments of the Government, and also in the fact that he never refuses a present unless it comes in such profitless shape as a petdog or other useless gift.

But seriously, it is time for the peo ple to take into consideration the question: Can the country stand another four years of the Grant tyranny?

Are the free citizens of America so blinded by passion-so callous to the appeals to their reason, judgment and patriotism-so recreant to the dearest principles of honest, faithful, true Republicanism as to be willing to entrust the reins of power for four years longer in the hands of an Administration that has marked the most corrupt, the most incompetent, the most extravagant, the most vindictive, the most lawless, the most despotic annals in the history of civilized government.

Is the country destined, four years longer, to be carsed and plundered by office-holders, and placemen, and tools of power, who may be found in every department of the Federal Government-and who fill all the placesfrom the highest to the lowe-t?

Is there no plan by which the patrie otic men of all parties can be united together for the sake of their country, in order to rescue it from overthrow and ruin?

The eyes of the American people will and ____, of ____. be turned to Baltimore for the solution of this problem—with the earnest hope that the deliberations of the Democratic Convention will prove the instrument of salvation and preservation of the principles of Constitutional lib

OUR TICKET COMPLETE.

The Congressional District Convenions in the State have all been held and candidates for Congress nominated. See their names at the head of our editorial columns and compare them - their talents, worth, ability and patriotism, with their opponents, and see what a contrast is presented. With Carter and Kitchen, and Waddell and Rogers, and Ashe and Leach, and Robbins and Vance, we can safely trust the destinies of our cause-for they are worthy and gallant champions, all, and will omit no duty and shrink from no responsibility that may devolve upon CAFT. W. H. KITCHEN.

The Democratic Convention of the Second Congressional D istrict which net at Goldsboro on Wednesday last, ominated as the candidate to bear our anner in that District, Capt. William H. Kitchen, of the county of Halifax.

Capt. Kitchen is a bold; forcible, igorous speaker, and will give the 'Honorable" Mr. Thomas a lively time before he gets through with him Capt. Kitchen is the man to pit against Thomas, as the latter individual will find to his sorrow, if he will agree to a oint discussion.

Notwithstanding the overwhelming Radical majority in the Second District, Kitchen is not the man to be intimidated by numbers or discouraged by odds, but he will charge gallantly right into the strong-holds of the enemy, and his ponderous blows will tell with murder-

Like the six hundred at Balaklava hat rushed into the jaws of death, our earless standard bearer in the Second District, will go forward to discharge campaign of two months' preparation his duty faithfully and unflinchinglywithout regard to consequences.

Hurrah for Kitchen!

"We are ashamed that a leader of the "All-Intelligent party" should prove himself so badly posted, and we will bet a cancelled Confederate postage stamp, with Jeff. Davis' squint eye on it, that the NEWS will not correct the tatement he has made."--Raleigh Era.

The people are everywhere astonished at the damning record of Radical extravagance and corruption which the Democratic press of the State is now ventilating from the official papers. These figures cannot be denied. The Radical papers can not break the force of the blow to their party which this disgraceful exposure inflicts upon them.

STURDAY ...

And blot them outforever; Affection we might justly deem A name that soon will perish, Instead of that bright golden dream,

Which we so fondly cherish. But no, the intervening space, Which friend from friend may part, Can ne'er dissolve those pleasing chord Which bind the willing heart.

Fond memory oft will bring to mind, The hours together spent, When quickly glided time away In harmless merriment.

Mothers.

We wish it were possible to persaude some-otherwise most excellent moth ers-how : much trouble they would save themselves, by exercising a little firmness towards their young children. Of course it takes more time to contest a point with a child than to yield it; and a busy mother, not reflecting that this is not for once, but for thousands of future times, and to rid hereelf of future importunity, says, wearily, "yes-yes-you may do it," when all the while she knows it to be wrong and most injurious to the child. Then there comes a time when she must say No! and the difficulty of enforcing it at so late a period of indulgence, none can tell but "easy" mothers of selfwilled children. For your own sakes then, if you have not the future good of your children at heart; -for your own sakes-and to save yourselves great trouble in the future, learn to say No-and take time to enforce it. Let every thing else go, if necessary, be cause this contest must be fought out successfully with every separate child; and once fought, it is done with for ever. When we see mothers, day by day, worned-harrassed, worn out by ceaseless teasings and importunities, al for want of a little firmness at the outset, we know not whether to be more sorry or angry. At any rate, we have no patience to stay by and witness such sad management.

A young man from the country was looking at the telegraph poles and lines the other day, and finally asked a gentleman "what's them things fer?" He was informed that the telegraph is what they send the news over the country with. Country'; remarks were extremely characteristic. "You don't say so?" then right here I shall stand till I see one newspaper shoot through the bottle neck, if it takes till dark.
